

Tuesday 13th May 2014

12:30 - Ticket allows access to Highgate East cemetery

Bring your own death picnic or lunch at Lauderdale House Cafe

at Lauderdale House

1:30 - Jordan Baseman

Screening of video work The Old Blood

2:00 - Martin Westwood

Reading

2:20 - Jordan Baseman

Screening of The Last Walk

2:40 - David Lillington

Dance of Death talk

3:10 - Pete Donaldson

Screening of Dance of Death

3:20 - Ben Wigley and Anna Griffin

Talk and screening about film project Paa Joe and the Lion

4:00 - Tea Break

at Highgate Cemetery (East)

5:10 - Matt Drage

Three lube yogas or In the bardo yet? Discipleship, boredom and dryness between life and death

5:40 - Patrick Coyle

The philosophy of style

6:20 - Tom Trevatt

Death Becomes Us

6:50 - Blue Firth

Cats, creativity and counterculture

+ a performance by Holly Slingsby

at Lauderdale House

7:30 - Last Supper

Sephy's Pulled Pork, Beef, Haloumi, or roasted veg steamed buns

8:30 - Dr John Troyer

The future of death and the new set of questions created by technological augmentation of human mortality

ART (AFTER) DEATH

A one-day outdoor symposium in Highgate's East Cemetery with further talks, performances and screenings at Lauderdale House

Tuesday 13 May 2014
12.30–11pm

For further details visit royalacademy.org.uk/events

Supported by the David Lean Foundation