

Morning Cleaner
Operations Department
Part time – mornings (15 hours each week)
£6,120 per annum, plus attractive benefits

The Royal Academy of Arts is one of the UK's leading arts institutions, renowned for its world famous exhibitions and prestigious art school. We are seeking an experienced Cleaner to join our in-house team providing a range of cleaning and portering services in 6, Burlington Gardens and Burlington House.

The duties cover our offices predominantly, but may also include public and gallery spaces, and can involve the operation of heavy cleaning machinery, shifting stationery, publications and furniture, setting up rooms for meetings and talks/seminars, and generally providing operational support as and when required.

You will need relevant experience, particularly with industrial cleaning equipment and, preferably, gained in a listed building open to the public. You will need to be a good team worker; have high standards of performance; be flexible, adaptable and willing, on occasion, to work additional hours in order to complete tasks.

The 15-hour week is worked on a 5 day rota basis which ensures that there is cover throughout the year; the core hours are 6.30am – 9.30am.

If you would like to apply, please send in your up-to-date CV and a covering letter outlining how you meet the criteria to recruitment@royalacademy.org.uk.

Candidates who meet our criteria will be interviewed immediately.
